The peculiar taint or infection which we call Scrofula lurks in the constitutions of multitudes of men. It either produces or is produced by an enfeebled, vitiated state of the blood, wherein that fluid becomes incompetent to sustain the vital forces in their vigorous action, and leaves the system to fall into disorder and decay. The scrofulous contamination is variously caused by mercurial disease, low living, disordered digestion from unhealthy food, impure air, filth and filthy habits, the depressing vices, and, above all, by the venereal infection. Whatever be its origin, it is hereditary in the constitution, descending from parents to children unto the third and fourth generation; indeed, it seems to be the rod of Him who says, "I will visit the iniquities of the fathers upon their children." The diseases it originates take various names, according to the organs it attacks. In the lungs, Scrofula produces tubercles, and finally Consumption; in the glands, swellings which suppurate and become ulcerous sores; in the stomach and bowels, derangements which produce indigestion, dyspepsia, and liver complaints; on the skin, eruptive and cutaneous affections. LATE EASTERN NEWS.

By overland mail we have Chicago dates to January 1st and New York dates to Dec. 28th.

OUR FOREIGN RELATIONS.

[Washington Correspondence (Dec. 20) N. Y. Times.]

What with the rectification of our boundaries and the acquisition of new territory, the Committees on Foreign Relations in both Houses of Congress are likely to have their hands full. Touching these matters you may look for some interesting developments, soon after the reassembling of Congress. There are not wanting those who insist that the President should take very high grounds in regard to the Alabama claims. They have advised a programme which contemplates that we shall make out our bill for the depredations of the Anglo-rebel cruisers, demand prompt payment, and in case of refusal to proceed to indemnify ourselves by seizing British Columbia and Vancouver's Island. It seems that the project of purchasing Cuba is a serious one. I am told that Gen. Banks, who is Chairman of the House Committee on Foreign Affairs, is willing to go one hundred millions on Cuba, provided we secure satisfactory terms of payment, and that he claims he has a majority of the House with him. You will thus perceive that the witty writer who lately descanted in your editorial columns on "The World for Sale," is in the fair way of seeing his anticipations realized. In diplomatic circles, the arrival of Mr. Edward Thornton, the newly appointed British Minister to Washington, is looked forward to with great interest. He is spoken of as a man of very decided ability. For the benefit of aspirants for Consulates in Europe, I may mention here, in lack of a better place to bring it, &c., that there is just one post now vacant, and that is Valencia, in Ireland, 'tother end of the cable from Heart's Content. The place does not hold out very flattering prospects, as the salary is but $175 per annum and find yourself; but I dare say there are budding diplomats who will crave this post.

PERSONAL AND GOSSIP.

Gens. Sherman and Sheridan are both absent for the holidays, but will return here as they will both be engaged in Washington during the whole of January in the duty of going over the new code of army regulations. Both are looking in excellent health. Sherman is a most devoted friend of Grant. The other day Sherman stated that when, last autumn, he was summoning the Indian chiefs to the council, they objected delaying their coming till November, as they prognosticated an early winter and they feared they would have difficulties in returning. He related this circumstance a few days ago, during the terrible storm, which he cited as a proof of Indian weather-wisdom. Sheridan is much fatter than he was in the war times, but is as jolly and rollicking as ever. It would be no news to say that he is a strong Radical, and I may add that he expresses the most assured belief in the triumph of Radical principles. "The man who attempts to obstruct the advancing tide," said he the other day, in conversation, "might as well get ready for his gravestone." Nor does he scruple to avow himself a Fenian sympathizer, though his sympathy, as he explained it to us, is mixed up with a philosophy little dreamed of by the Fenians. As an interesting war reminiscence, I may mention that the official record in the War Department shows that Sheridan, during his command of less than a year in Virginia, captured as many flags from the rebels as were taken by all the other armies of the United States during the entire course of the war. What a shining record! Mr. Seward wears the appearance of better health than he has presented for years, and to visitors of an evening, his speculative and philosophising mind shines vivacious and elastic as ever. Mr. Sumner has gone to live again in the fine house he bought on his marriage.

THE RECENT REMOVAL OF SOUTHERN MILITARY COMMANDERS.

[Dispatch to the Chicago Tribune.]

WASHINGTON, Dec. 30.—It is fully believed in high official circles that the President's late acts are but parts of a matured plan for securing the total defeat of Congressional reconstruction. It seems that the action in Pope's case was hastened, and the removal of Swayne determined, after a conference with a delegation of rebels from Alabama. They informed him that unless he acted promptly in removing these officers, nothing could prevent the ratification of the Alabama constitution, and, besides the removal of Pope, that of Swayne was absolutely necessary to render the defeat of the constitution possible. It has also become known that certain parties here and in the South, acting in collusion with the President, are preparing to carry cases under the Civil Rights bill and all subsequent reconstruction measures, to the Supreme Court, at the earliest possible day, and that the President feels confident of getting a decision upon them in time to answer all his purposes. It is understood that he has assured these gentlemen that if the Supreme Court should declare the reconstruction measures unconstitutional, he would at once issue a proclamation ordering reconstruction to proceed upon his policy.

SENATOR MORTON ON THE ISSUES OF 1868.

United States Senator Morton, of Indiana, in response to an invitation of the Soldiers' and Sailors' Union, addressed a large audience tonight, in the hall of that association, his subject being "The Issues of 1868." He said that among them would be the complete restoration of the Southern State governments to the hands of the rebels by the defeat of the Congressional plan of reconstruction, and that the success of the Democratic party directly involved a compensation for slaves, the assumption of the rebel war debt, and pensions to Confederate soldiers, their widows and orphans. He analyzed Gen. Hancock's recent order, which the President had laid before Congress in his message, saying it made no mention of the business of reconstruction, but was directed entirely to the recognition of the legal character of the existing State governments, and that the President pledged himself to sustain them fully in the execution of their powers. If General Hancock supported the principles against which he fought and became the ally of his enemies against his friends, his laurels would wither like the tender flowers beneath the simoon of the desert.

CHANGES OF MILITARY COMMANDERS.

The following order was issued on the 28th of December:

1. Brevet Major General E. O. C. Ord will turn over his command of the Fourth Military District to Brevet Major General Gillem, and proceed to San Francisco, California, to take command of the Department of California.

2. On being relieved by Major General Ord, Brigadier General Irvin McDowell will proceed to Vicksburg, Mississippi, and relieve General Gillem in command of the Fourth Military District.

3. Brevet Major General John Pope is hereby relieved of the command of the Third Military District, and will report without delay at the headquarters of the army for further orders, turning over his command to the next senior officer until the arrival of his successor.

4. Major General George G. Meade is assigned to the command of the Third Military District, and will assume it without delay. The Department of the East will be commanded by the senior officer in it until a commander is named by the President.

5. The officers assigned in the foregoing orders to the command of the military districts, will exercise therein any and all powers conferred by the acts of Congress upon District Commanders; and also any and all powers pertaining to Military Department Commanders.

6. Brevet Major General Wager Swayne, Colonel of the Forty fifth United States Infantry, is hereby relieved from duty in the Bureau of Refugees, Freedmen and Abandoned Lands, and will proceed to Nashville, Tennessee, and assume command of his regiment.

WASHINGTON, D. C., Dec. 29.—The removal of General Pope being expected, caused but little comment, but the action in the case of Ord surprised every one. It has transpired, however, that the President was not the principal mover in this matter, but that the removal was urged and insisted on by General Grant, who has long been dissatisfied with the administration of affairs in Ord's District. It is thought at headquarters that this officer has developed a marked incapacity for such a command as he has held, and after much persuasion, Mr. Johnson yielded and made the removal.

General Gillem, of Tennessee, has reached Washington, under orders from General Ord, to lay before the President his views concerning the condition of the South and matters generally connected with reconstruction. He had interviews with both the President and General Grant. Mr. Johnson is far better satisfied at the spirit of some of Ord's late orders than Grant is, and if the latter had authority certain of the latest ones would be modified, at least so far as to impose equal restraint upon white outlaws as black ones.

In the case of Pope, General Grant insists that the action taken is exceedingly ill-timed and injudicious, and his influence has been constantly used to prevent his removal.

EXAGGERATED ACCOUNT OF SUFFERING AT THE SOUTH.

WASHINGTON, Dec. 30.—There is excellent reason for believing that the reports of destitution which are now coming up from the South, particularly from General Ord's department, are exaggerated. So far as the most reliable information goes to show, the destitution is rather prospective than present. It may be greater before Spring, but just now it is not alarming. Among the blacks it has been largely caused by the action of the planters in discharging their hands at the close of the season, in violation of their contracts, and in some cases dismissing them because they voted the Republican ticket.

General Howard proposes to meet the cases of distress in the South by a liberal application of the surplus funds under his control as the head of the Freedmen's Bureau, as in the case of some South Carolina planters who had no money to commence operations for raising cotton last year. General Howard, though not legally authorized to make such a disposition of the bureau funds, advanced the sum of $30,000, taking a lien on the crops for the repayment of the money. When the planters sold their crops the entire amount was liquidated, and General Howard's beneficent course was greatly approved in the case of the Mississippi planters who lost everything by the river inundation. It is proposed to adopt a similar considerate plan of action, and to relieve immediate distress among the working people, it is suggested to establish depots of provisions at points convenient to the districts in which the greatest want prevails.

RICHMOND, Dec. 30.—Exaggerated accounts, telegraphed from this city relative to an expected rising of the negroes of the south side counties, have no better foundation than the fact that a few days since a squad of soldiers were sent to Halifax because a disturbance on Christmas was feared. The negro population throughout the State is as quiet, as far as an armed insurrection is concerned, as it has been since the emancipation. The military headquarters nor Freedmen's Bu have been advised of any apprehended trouble.

SENATOR HENDERSON'S FINANCIAL MEASURES.

Senator Henderson, of Missouri, of the Finance Committee, has prepared a financial measure which he intends to move as a substitute for that of Sherman. The points of his plan are as follows:

1. To consolidate the national debt in long-loan principal and interest, payable in gold, interest not to exceed 3½ per cent. per annum, payable semi-annually, and to be exempt from all taxation.

2. The national banks now having bonds deposited with the Treasurer to secure circulation, shall, within twelve months, substitute the new or consolidated bonds or have their circulation withdrawn.

3. To amend the national banking law so that not exceeding 75 per cent of the par value of bonds shall be given in circulation to any bank. Also to repeal the limitation of three hundred millions circulation to national banks so as to make banking free, as any other business, subject to such new guards as may be provided by law.

4. To provide for the very gradual withdrawal of greenbacks so as to enable national banks to gradually supply themselves with coin preparatory to resuming specie payment.

5. To constitute a Financial Board to be composed of the Secretary of the Treasury, Comptroller of Currency, and others to be appointed by law, to determine the time and manner of withdrawing greenbacks, and with power, in case of great commercial distress or monetary panic, to supply banks on deposits of bonds as collateral, with legal tender treasury notes to a certain amount, not exceeding $50,000,000.

6. When the revenue bill reaches the Senate, to propose the removal of internal taxes from all articles of manufacture, except whisky and tobacco, and to provide new means for collecting taxes on these articles; to continue the income and stamp taxes, license taxes, and those on railroad and steamboat receipts, and some others, and in a large measure abandon the present expensive system of taxation.

GRANT'S LETTER.

[Washington correspondence of the New York Independent.]

General Grant's "private" letter to the President on the removal of Mr. Stanton was sent down to the House, two or three days ago, and is now a part of the General's public record. The tone of the letter is manly, and it has given great satisfaction to the Republicans in Congress. It was not written for publication, and is of more value from that fact, as it unquestionably expresses the sincere convictions of General Grant at that time. He went so far as to resort to a threat in his endeavor to save Sheridan and Stanton from removal. His letter written in behalf of a bad cause would be impertinent, but written in behalf of justice it was an exceedingly courageous remonstrance. Mr. Stanton is very much pleased with the letter, and it cannot fail to help him in his controversy with the President, now under consideration in the Senate.

The publication of the letter widens the breach between the General-in-Chief and the President. It is impossible longer to conceal the fact that the President greatly dislikes Grant. His ridiculous message respecting General Hancock was intended to bring him out as a Democratic candidate for the Presidency. Mr. Johnson, and his friends think that a Union General will be our next President; and, fearing the nomination of Grant at Chicago, they are getting Hancock into position as the candidate of the rebels, Copperheads and placemen. They find already, however, that the rebels of the border States won't endure a Union General. In this vicinity they assert they will never help to elect a man President who was concerned in the hanging of that martyr to the cause of Southern independence, Mrs. Surratt. Hancock was a member of the Military Commission that took her life. This quarrel in the ranks of the party must be settled; but I have no doubt the rebels will triumph, unless they become satisfied that Hancock will do their work better than one of themselves. This used to be so; for a Northern doughface could always do meaner things than a Southern man. But that was before Southern "white trash" got elevated to the White House. A Yankee "doughface" and a Southern "pineywoods man" will answer very well to be yoked up together. Hancock will never be able to surpass Johnson in his opposition to colored people.

A NEW EDITION OF MRS. COBB.

Everybody remembers the case of the speculative Mrs. Cobb, the "pretty pardon brokeress," in this city, her reputed intrigues and her good standing with the epicurean as well as constitution-loving President of these States. Mrs. Cobb, having had her day, has been succeeded by another of her class, on whom a double portion of the spirit of her predecessor seems to have descended. The on dit in reference to the lady and her relations with the President (who has as weak a side for the attractions of fascinating ladies as for the flattery of Democratic placemen, and is not so much of Platonist as guardian of the Constitution) runs as follows:

Some time early in the present year a General of Volunteers from Indiana went to a prominent Southern city as a government official. Not long after arriving at his post he became fascinated with a lady much more fair than conscientious, and much more attractive and accomplished than of good repute. The General died in a few months after his marriage, and early last October the widow came here ostensibly to settle her husband's accounts, but in reality to play on a larger scale the role of Mrs. Cobb. She took rooms at the Metropolitan Hotel, and speedily managed to make herself famous. Being evidently a "lady of education," possessing all the elements of attractiveness, a brunette with two very bright eyes, a handsome figure, fascinating demeanor, "desirable, distinguished, celebrated," and conducting herself with that freedom and abandon which so become and grace our modern civilization, she speedily became an object of interest. By means not necessary to be mentioned, she became a frequent visitor at the White House. The report goes that she has been instrumental in getting a large numbers of claims allowed and [illegible] ments at the hands of the President. [illegible] of confessedly bad character, she is said to possess to-day more influence with the President [illegible] the famous Mrs. Cobb, and her intimacy with the President is equally notorious. Her [illegible] the results of her influence with the [illegible] President have enabled her to increase the [illegible] icence of her establishment. She has [illegible] rooms at Willard's, and every day a [illegible] equipage conveys her from the hotel to the White House. Such is said to be the role that this second edition of Mrs. Cobb is enacting, and the story comes in a pretty reliable shape. The name of the lady has been furnished me, but I withhold it, from prudential considerations, for the present.

OUR AMERICAN SABBATH.—The Watchman and Reflector of Boston has an article on the [illegible] in which the following [illegible] est occur:

The simply irreligious, who dislike it as a perpetual disturber of their consciences. [illegible] always existed, and many of them, [illegible] annoyed, would never strike at that [illegible] troubling them; but others could be [illegible] to swell the ranks of any organized [illegible]

A Dear Investment for England

The news makers have been busy with their conjectures and conjurations, in the endeavor to raise a tempest of war between this country and Great Britain but the Prosperos were unsuccessful, and the storm did not come at their bidding. Stories of this sort always bear evidence on their face of their sensational character and [illegible] are not worthy of serious consideration or sober comment. The amount of money involved in the claims for indemnity for depredations upon American commerce by British Confederate cruisers is about ten millions of dollars, and though a pretty steady correspondence has been kept up for three years in regard to the claims, there has never been any evidence of a disposition to press the matter. The business has afforded Mr. Seward a fine opportunity for exhibiting his powers as an epistolary writer. Micawber's fondness for this exercise was nothing to his. But those claims are in such a shape that they are likely to do Great Britain far more injury than we suffered by the depredations that [illegible] them. They stand as a precedent of British violations of honesty and neutrality, inviting like conduct by others when Great Britain may be engaged in war. Therefore it is clear that it would be better for her to pay them than to let them remain as a continual menace to her own [illegible] and colonies. Accordingly there is [illegible] philosophy in the remark of the Chicago Tribune, that the United States can afford to let the matter for the present stand as it is. The few millions involved in these claims could not be invested in a more magnificent scheme, the [illegible] is a thousand fold, and ultimate payment [illegible]. The investment of these few millions in [illegible] real estate is far better than any of the [illegible] real estate operations of Mr. Seward. [illegible] the people of the United States want the [illegible], they will take it with accumulated interest [illegible]. Reprisal now would be premature. We have all the business in hand that can [illegible]; but in a short time, say a year or [illegible], when we will present over 40,000,000 [illegible] and united people, we may conclude to [illegible] the Alabama claims by a mere extension [illegible], or in any other way that will best adjust the affair, taking to ourselves [illegible] indemnity for the past and security for [illegible]. Till then the claims may rest as they [illegible] by British madness as a lien on [illegible] colonies, West India islands, [illegible], with an annual interest compounding with the principal, and secured beyond [illegible] investiture."

[illegible] could more forcibly illustrate the position of Johnson than the fact that he has been abandoned by his English eulogists and [illegible]. Forsaken by every party at home [illegible] by even the fag-end of Copperheads, he is now also [illegible] by his English [illegible], the last and most zealous of his champions. The London Times has been accustomed [illegible] as the un[illegible]; but of the Emperor the [illegible] hope since it has witnessed the [illegible] of Johnson. The Thunderer [illegible] the object of its former admiration for [illegible] in a lost cause, and is of opinion [illegible] his obstinate stupidity is only equalled [illegible]. It declares that he "regards [illegible] sovereigns do their prerogative, [illegible] that his annual message is the production of a partisan rather than of a dignified [illegible]. The remarks of the leading organ [illegible] are concurred in by lesser [illegible]. The Spectator says that the [illegible] "gives the finishing stroke to his reputation [illegible];" the Standard sees his "blind [illegible]" prompts him to lecture Congress on [illegible] of legislation;" the Morning Herald [illegible] gravely of his acts of folly "which [illegible] had so much [illegible] to regret as those [illegible] has adopted;" and the [illegible] that he has "never recovered from [illegible] which took firm possession of his [illegible] in the first year of his office, that he is the [illegible] of the United States, and accordingly [illegible] in his disregard of 'Congressional legislation [illegible] as a rival and irregular power.'" [illegible] the last [illegible] journal, "the United States [illegible] in a worse condition now than they were [illegible] during the war, if it depends on a man of [illegible] and [illegible] to save [illegible] life." Thus the British press,—and [illegible] we have named are the leading [illegible] organs,—pronounces an emphatic opinion [illegible] the man who until this time has been [illegible] lamentation. Johnson has now no [illegible] defenders at home or abroad. [illegible] the party has no need of him, and [illegible] everywhere perceive that, whatever [illegible] may hereafter befall, there is no more [illegible] that his "policy" will be revived than [illegible] political revolution will go backward [illegible] the marches of the last ten years. [illegible] by Johnson [illegible] is as dead as Julius Cæsar.

The Sunday Question.—A day or two since, in [illegible] of the address of that aggregated body of [illegible] and imbecility which is styled the [illegible] Committee of Multnomah County," we remarked that the day chosen for the issue of the said address was Sunday. The organ of that [illegible] attempts to parry this by [illegible] questions which have nothing to do [illegible]. It says that its "Sunday morning [illegible] on Saturday night which relieves all the employes of the office from Sunday [illegible], while the labor on the Monday morning [illegible] of the OREGONIAN is performed [illegible]." [illegible] remark about the [illegible] of the [illegible] Committee is styled "[illegible] pretense." This matter as to the [illegible] either or both the papers are issued is [illegible] question. We did not say a [illegible] regarding the Sunday or any other issue of the Herald. It is no business of ours when that [illegible] is printed. But if a political organization [illegible] Sunday as the day for issuing its call for a Convention, it is the right of every person to state the fact as we have done. And as so [illegible] has been said concerning the Monday morning [illegible] of the OREGONIAN, we will add here that there is no one who would not consider it infinitely less harmful for a few persons to be quietly [illegible] in their office on Sunday in preparing a respectable newspaper for Monday morning, [illegible] for a disreputable, ignorant, abusive Democratic sheet like the Herald to be circulated on Sunday. Nobody can have any doubt as to [illegible] method is the more corruptive in its tendency. Furthermore, the Herald is never printed till Sunday morning, it is distributed on Sunday, and is [illegible] on Sunday to all places to which the [illegible] run on that day. Therefore it is not true that all the employes of that office are relieved from Sunday labor. Sunday labor is done [illegible] that paper as well as upon the OREGONIAN, and in addition to this, a scurrilous and corrupting sheet is circulated on Sunday for people to read who might be better, and who certainly could not be worse, employed.

[DISPATCHES TO THE OREGONIAN]

DATES TO FEBRUARY 4.

Congressional

WASHINGTON, Feb 4.—In the Senate, Cragin presented a petition from citizens of Colorado asking admission as a State.

After some miscellaneous business, the bill regulating the Tenure of certain offices was taken up. The question pending was Sumner's motion in reference to Special Agents of the State Department. Sumner advocated and Buckalew and Patterson opposed the amendment till the morning hour expired, when the Reconstruction bill was taken up. Williams spoke in support of the bill.

In the House Arrell offered a resolution relating to recent outrages committed by an organization known as the Kuklux Klan in Tennessee against the commanders of the Freedmen's Bureau, asking for its immediate suppression by the district commander.

A bill concerning protection for American citizens abroad came up. Butler suggested a substitute for the bill declaring the right of expatriation by voluntary acts and that every naturalized citizen is entitled to all the protection at home and abroad which the Government can afford. Other amendments were offered and the bill was debated by several members until the expiration of the morning hour, when the bill for the aid of Southern railroads by grants of lands was taken up. After a lengthy debate the matter was informally [illegible]. Several executive communications, including one from the Secretary of War transmitting the correspondence between Grant and the President in reference to the Secretary were, on motion of Stevens, referred to the proper committee after being read for the information of the House, which listened with unusual interest.

WASHINGTON, Feb 4.—The House Judiciary Committee meets on Friday to commence the investigation of charges against Judge Field. The Committee intend to examine the matter thoroughly. A large number of witnesses have been summoned. It is said that Field's friends are trying to hush the matter up.

A dispatch said to be official, had been received stating that Senator Pugal who is negotiating for the sale of Panama Bay is acting on his own account. The Dominican Government will not be responsible for what he does.

The Library committee have instructed their chairman to support a bill for an international copy right law. Its provisions will be very liberal in securing the rights of authors.

Gen. Schenck thinks he will be able to report a new internal revenue bill in two weeks. The committee are holding night sessions.

The Grant-Johnson Correspondence.

WASHINGTON, Feb 4.—Stanton, in a letter transmitting the correspondence between Grant and the President says that he has had no correspondence with the President since the 12th of August last. He has discharged the duties of the war office without personal or written communication with the President. No orders had been issued from the Department in the name of the President.

Grant's letter to the President dated Jan. 25th, requests the President to give the written instructions which had previously been given verbally, and that he would not obey any other from Stanton unless he knew it came from the President. He says:

"I am compelled to ask these written instructions in consequence of many gross misrepresentations affecting my personal honor circulating through the press and purporting to come from the President, and containing actions which occurred either with the President privately in his office, or in Cabinet meeting. What is written admits of no misunderstanding.

In view of the misrepresentations referred to, it will be well to state the facts in the case. Some time after I [illegible] the duties of Secretary of War, ad interim, the President asked my views as to the course Stanton would have to pursue in case the Senate would not confirm his suspension, to obtain possession of the office. My reply was, in substance, that Stanton would have to appeal to the courts to reinstate him; illustrating my position by citing the grounds taken by the Baltimore Police Commissioners. In that case I did not doubt the right of Governor Swann to remove the old Commissioner and appoint their successors. As the old Commissioners consented to give up, however, I contended that no measure was left but to appeal to a court. Finding the President desirous of keeping Stanton out of office whether sustained in his suspension or not, I stated that I would look particularly into the Tenure of Office bill, and if I should change my mind in this particular case I would inform him of the fact. Consequently, in reading the Tenure of Office bill closely, I found I could not, without violating the law, refuse to vacate the office the moment Stanton was reinstated by the Senate, even though the President [illegible] me to [illegible], which he never did.

Taking this view of the subject, and learning on Saturday the 11th that the Senate had taken up the subject of Stanton's suspension, I had some conversation with Gen Sherman and members of my staff in which I stated the law. When they left me I decided as to my action. Should Stanton be reinstated, I intended to inform the President, and went to him for the sole purpose of making my decision known, and did make it known. In this I fulfilled my promise made in our last private conversation on the subject.

The President, however, instead of accepting my view of the requirements of the tenure of office bill, contended that he had suspended Stanton under authority given by the Constitution and I could not be governed by the act. I said the law was binding on me until set aside by a competent tribunal. An hour was consumed, each reiterating his views on the subject until, getting late, the President said he would see me again. A doubt never entered my mind about the President understanding my position, namely: If the Senate refused to concur in the [illegible] of Stanton my powers as Secretary of War ad interim would cease."

Gen. Grant then refers to some talk about the appointment of Governor Cox, of Ohio, as Secretary of War. He then refers to what took place in the Cabinet meeting. He says the President gave utterance in the conversation above alluded to, to certain expressions stating his understanding that Grant should hold the office until removed by the courts, or till he should resign and allow another Secretary to be installed. Grant, after hearing the President through, stated the conversation as given above, and in no wise admitted the correctness of the President's statement of the conversation. The President indorsed on Grant a letter a written order not to obey the orders of Stanton unless he knew such order was authorized by the President. Grant replied that under the law he must obey the orders of the War Department. While Stanton's authority is not countermanded, it will be satisfactory evidence of any orders issued from the War Department by authority of the President that they are authorized by the Executive.

The President replies to this letter, Jan 31st, positively declaring that Grant gave a distinct understanding that he would remain in position in the war office, or in the event he should conclude it to be his duty to surrender the office to Stanton, that he would return the office to the President prior to the Senate's decision in the case, so as to enable the President to designate some other man. The correspondence is very lengthy.

CHICAGO, Feb 4.—It is reported that the President will reply to Grant's last letter, and will sustain his charges by the signatures of members of the Cabinet who heard Grant's admission. Grant's last letter concluded as follows: "As my honor as a soldier and integrity as a man have been so violently assailed, pardon me for saying, I cannot but regard the whole matter from beginning to end as an attempt to involve me in the resistance of law for which you hesitated to assume responsibility in order to destroy my character before the country. I am in a measure confirmed in this opinion by your recent orders, directing me to disobey orders from the Secretary of War, my superior and your subordinate, without having countermanded his authority. With the assurance, Mr. President, that nothing less than a vindication of my personal honor could have induced this correspondence on my part, I have the honor to be, very respectfully, your obedient servant,

CUPID'S PROCLAMATION.

The ice is gone—the Winter's past,
Valentine's time has come at last;
So if you wish to cut a shine,
Just send your love a VALENTINE.

As railroad talk is all the go,
We Portland folks will make a show,
The cars are coming—clear the line,
Or you'll get a Bond for your VALENTINE.

The locomotive's startling shriek,
You'll hear it "clean across the creek,"
'Twill make "old fogies" howl and whine,
But we'll cure them with a VALENTINE.

We'll get the Bonds—then all we lack,
Is depots, engines and a track.
With these, we'll build a splendid line,
And pay the cost with a VALENTINE.

CLAIMS AGAINST THE CITY.

The bills of W. L. Higgins for lighting with oil and turning off seven street lamps for the month of January, $45 50; the Oregon Daily Herald, for printing, $44 00; C. F. Weigant, for one month's rent of engine house for No. 4, $30 00; Blumauer & Rosenblatt, for one month rent of Council Chamber, $60 00; Portland Gas Light Co., for gas furnished the Council Chamber for the month of January, $25 25, and gas furnished street lamps for the same month, $302 00; Portland Water Co., $50 00; were read and ordered paid. Also, one month's salary to the following named officers: W. S. Caldwell, $125 00; D. Jacobi, $125 00; Wm. McMillan, $75; Joseph [illegible], $100 00; [illegible] Partlow, $100, and for the relief of Mrs. Annie O'Connor, $100 00, were ordered paid. Also, Geo. H. Belden, City Surveyor, six days services, $42 00; W. T. Morris, Ass't City Surveyor, five days services, $15 00, and C. H. Myers for torches, $20 00; was ordered paid.

READING OF ORDINANCES.

An ordinance suggesting the probable cost of improving Second street between A and Madison streets, and appropriating the sum of $62, was read the first and second times. (The ordinance transfers the overplus of $62, and credits the property taxed for the improvement with said amount.)

ENGROSSED ORDINANCES.

An ordinance reported by the Committee on Ways and Means, providing for levying a tax of 8½ mills to defray the ordinary expenses of the city government for the year 1868, was read a third time and passed.

Also an ordinance providing for the levying of a special tax of three-fourths of a mill, to pay interest on bonds and the indebtedness arising out of the expenses incurred for the improvement of the Willamette river, was read a third time and passed.

An Ordinance reported by the Select Committee as an amendment to the original, providing for obtaining material for public buildings, the repair of streets, and to aid the Oregon Central Railroad company in the construction of a valley railroad, was taken up in its order, read and adopted for the original, and on motion of Councilman Hallock, was read a third time and passed. Ayes—Councilmen Besser, Burch, Fechheimer, Hallock, McCraken, Mulkey, Porter and Rosenheim—8; nays—none; absent, Councilman Ripley.

[Immediately upon the vote being announced by the Mayor, the spectators present made the hall ring with enthusiasm. The Ordinance will be published complete for the information of the public in general in to-morrow morning's issue.]—Adjourned.

Road Matters.—We made allusion yesterday morning to an effort being made to change the boundaries of District No. 4, in which is located a portion of the Allen or North road from Portland to Hillsboro, not however with the least intention of opposing or favoring such change, or of stating anything more than the views communicated by a [illegible] whom we stated as being "well posted in road matters of this county." We find, however, that [illegible] we did not [illegible] the gentleman's statements fully and intelligibly or there is something else [illegible] in our item. Perhaps, had we stated the proposition fully and [illegible], as given us, there would have been no [illegible] for any one to feel [illegible]. Upon [illegible] the petition for the change in the road districts in question, we find that one item is a little "rough" on the North road district, as well as on the [illegible], and while we disclaim any interested motive whatever in the matter, we are willing to do justice [illegible] by stating the precise facts as to the "effort being made to change the boundaries." As at present bounded, the south line of District No. 4, the Allen road district runs from the Willamette river along Oak street, till it intersects Couch's claim; thence South along the line of Couch's claim to the east line of King's claim and thence to the base line; thence along the base line to the meridian or [illegible] line. The petition prays to change the boundary as follows: "To run up Stark street to the Portland [illegible]; thence south so as to run one-half the [illegible] between the Canyon road and the new mountain road north of it, to the meridian line." This change, [illegible], will add to District No. 4, one tier of blocks in this city and some portion of the area on the mountain, now belonging to District No. 78. It will leave all of the Allen road in one district as far as the county line, and all the Canyon road in another, dividing the country adjacent equally between them. As at present one mile and a half of the Allen road, beyond the point where it intersects the base line, is in the Canyon road district, and this [illegible] to be at the bottom of all the road troubles. These seem to be the facts as to the boundary question, [illegible] stated which, we leave all expressions of opinion as to the policy of changing lines and [illegible] pointing this or that man as supervisor, to those who have greater or more direct interest in those matters.

[illegible] Judge. Proceedings of Wednesday, Feb. 5th:

In the matter of the estate of Thos. G. Robinson, [illegible] order made setting apart and assigning to E. [illegible] widow of deceased, personal property, $317, and allowing her $310 for her support during the past three months. Also, petition for order to authorize sale of undivided half of lots 1 and 2 in block 20, in the city of Portland, and about six acres of land on Robinson's Hill.

C. M. Carter, guardian of Charles A. and Clara Blackstone—order confirming the sale of 6 acres of land, part of [illegible] land claim, to Amasa Brooks, for $310.

The rest of the day was taken up in the examination of the reports of road supervisors and in the hearing of the petition for the reduction of ferry rates between this city and East Portland.

Personal.—First Lieut. J. F. Small, 1st U. S. Cavalry, whose station is Fort Klamath, called on us last evening. The Lieutenant is an Oregon boy, who, when the rebellion broke out, felt that he couldn't keep out of the fray, and so, leaving school at [illegible], went to the Dalles and enlisted as a private soldier in the 1st U. S. Cavalry, then stationed there. In December 1861, he went east with his company and afterward went through the active service which his company saw, and by meritorious and gallant services earned promotion and his present rank. He returned to Oregon in Jan. 1866. He has been here and Ft. Vancouver now for some weeks, but will start upon his return to his post, on Friday.

Temperature at [illegible] the City.—A correspondent at Eugene sends us the following note: "As statements are circulating conveying the idea that this is the coldest place in Oregon, I wish to correct the error. Our coldest weather was on the morning of the 7th or 8th of January, Fahrenheit's thermometer marking 8° below zero. About the 15th ult. it was 5° below zero; some one read this instrument wrong, and by a mistake somewhat easily made, made it 15° below zero. My observation was, by another observer, pronounced correct." We will merely add to the above that we have heard of no other point in the valley where the mercury fell so low as eight degrees below zero.

Saving the Pieces.—The last case of saving the pieces, or making the most of passing opportunities or whatever anybody may be pleased to call it, was that of two little boys who were found at 12 o'clock, midnight, a few nights since, skating on a little strip of ice—about three feet wide and ten feet long—by the light of a brief candle set in the middle of the diminutive "rink." Every time, the little fellows would swoop down from one end to the other of the field, they had to spread themselves astride the candle, at the risk of snuffing it out and spoiling the very last chance for a "skeet." If those boys ever lose an opportunity, we mistake their mettle.

Wanted—A Volunteer Wife.—A correspondent from, no matter where, sends us the following copy of an advertisement posted on a slab before the door of an "old feller" who has lost two wives by death and two by some other means, not stated:

"Notice is here by given that I this day advertise for mee a nice volunteer lady for mee a nice house keeper as I am in kneede of a wife to keepe house for me Provided I can find such a lady as a volunteer lady as I am too barshful to make known views to any lady."

A bashful old gentleman, truly. Wonder if his four former wives were "nice volunteer ladies."

Washington Guard's Ball.—The Washington Guards are making extensive preparations for their annual ball to celebrate the birth-day of the "Father of his Country." The 22d happening this year, on Saturday, the ball will take place on the evening of Friday, the 21st. The Guards never failed yet to have a "gay and festive" time at their parties, and there can be no reasonable doubt that the approaching ball will be one of their best.

Another Weather Sign.—Just at this particular juncture, people are uncommonly industrious in observing and particularly careful to mention every weather sign. It seems to be a sort of fixed belief that if the weather ever changes, the mutation will come about through some sign or other. The last one brought to our attention was the flight northward, at a great elevation, of a flock of wild geese—said to be a better sign, any day, than a change in the moon. Such a flight was observed yesterday and duly recorded. The "goose hangs high" and everything may be soon expected to become lovely.

A Poet Murdered.—One of the most distinguished poets once wrote,

> Thrice is he armed who hath his quarrel just.

The Corvallis Gazette, last week, quoted the great bard thus:

> "Thrice armed is he,
> Whose quarrel is just."

After that, the editor is liable at any moment, to see the angered ghost of of a poet. He should be cautious about going into dark or lonely places.

Taking the Census.—Mr. L. M. Parrish, clerk of school district No. 1, is taking a census of the children, as required by the law. He says that some persons are averse to giving the numbers of their children, evidently thinking that it will subject them to taxation. Such persons need have no anxiety on that score, as taking the census has nothing to do with the matter of taxation. He only wishes to ascertain the number of children in the district, to be used in apportioning the school funds among the districts.

Remission of Fines.—It is stated that in the case of petitions from parties here, convicted of and fined for violations of the revenue laws, for a remission of fines, the Commissioner has returned answers, remitting the fine of Mr. Mitchell and refusing to remit the fine of Collins. The goods of the latter have been levied upon and will be sold to satisfy the judgment and costs.

Express to the East.—Wells, Fargo & Co.'s Express will be despatched for the Dalles on Friday, the 7th inst., connecting there with the company's daily express to Boise and the Eastern States. Letters, treasure and parcels will be received till 8 P. M., Thursday. Hereafter, a messenger will be despatched every five days.

Petition for the Payment of Fees.—Several members of the city police have united in a petition to the Council for the payment to them of fees in cases where they have served as witnesses. Being compelled to attend the police court as witnesses, they should be paid as such—just as are other persons.

Special Meeting of the Library Association.—A special meeting of the members of the Portland Library Association will be held on Saturday, the 22nd inst., for the purpose of taking action on the proposed amendments to the constitution, relative to the election of Directors.

Railroad Ordinance Passed.—The railroad ordinance, after being amended in some verbal particulars, was reported back to the Council last evening, and passed unanimously. We will publish to-morrow an official copy of it.

Navigation of the Slough.—The little steamer Webfoot went down the slough again yesterday, with another load of provisions. It was expected that she would be able to land them within about one mile of St. Helens.

Produce.—Arrived per steamer Alert from Oregon City yesterday, 3,612 qr sks flour, 370 bags wheat, 161 sks feed, 29 sks dried fruit, 6 bales blankets, 24 dressed hogs, 6 bf bbls dried apples, 5 coops chickens, 2 pkgs mdse.

Not at the Oregon Iron Works.—The accident to Mr. Buchanan on Tuesday, did not happen at the "Oregon Iron Works," as the types had it yesterday morning, but at the Willamette Iron Works.

Width of the Columbia.—The Mountaineer states the width of the Columbia river, opposite the O. S. N. Co.'s depot, Dalles, at 1,324 feet.

Message.—There is a message at the telegraph office for M. Vanstone.

General Agents.—Messrs. Daly & Stevens, collecting and general agents, have removed their office to 104 Front street, opposite the Franklin Bookstore, where they may be found ready to attend promptly to any and all business in their line. Read their advertisement under the head of "New To-Day," and give them a call.

Mrs. Peters will continue to give instructions (in music) on the Pianoforte, as heretofore. Residence, N. W. corner of Fourth and Taylor streets.

HELMBOLD'S EXTRACT BUCHU and Improved Rose Wash cures secret and delicate disorders in all their stages, at little expense, little or no change in diet, no inconvenience and no exposure. It is pleasant in taste and odor, immediate in its action and free from all injurious properties.

DENTIST.

THOSE WHO DESIRE FIRST-CLASS DENTAL SERVICES might do well to give him a call. He is making a NEW AND IMPROVED VULCANITE PLATE. The nature of his improvement consists in lining the entire concave surface with fine gold; it makes the plate twice as strong and one-third thinner than the common vulcanite plate. It also prevents the acids of the mouth from roughing the plate, and from turning it black, which is a common occurrence. One half of the common vulcanite plates turn black after being in use a short time, particularly where tobacco is used for smoking. His new style of plate admits of a very fine finish on the concave or palatine surface. His office is the only place where such work can be had. The improvement is his own invention, for which he has received, December 3d, 1867, a patent from the United States Patent Office. He has been making this style of work for the last two and a half years, and has specimens of the work which can be seen at his office. This work has given satisfaction in every case.

OFFICE—temporarily at the private parlor of the New Columbian Hotel. dec31-3ptf.

HELMBOLD'S EXTRACT BUCHU gives health and vigor to the frame and bloom to the pallid cheek. Debility is accompanied by many alarming symptoms, and if no treatment is submitted to, consumption, insanity, or epileptic fits ensue.

Martin Luther once thought he saw the devil in his chamber, and threw an inkstand at his head. Had they had in those days AYER'S PILLS to exorcise all the devils that come from a disordered stomach, his laughable fright would not have become a matter of history.

DR. HOSTETTER'S STOMACH BITTERS should be in the possession of everybody in the mining region. As a preventive of various dangerous diseases to which the gold seeker is liable, it has no superior. While it is quite palatable even as a beverage, it is speedy and powerful in its effects upon the system. In all cases of diarrhea, dysentery and the prevailing fevers consequent upon exposure, the Bitters will be found invaluable as a corrective. No man should enter upon the exposed camp life of a miner without being provided with Hostetter's preventive of stomach disease, nor should any of those who are now engaged in the occupation, fail to have recourse to the Bitters.—Sold by all druggists and dealers everywhere.

PERRY DAVIS' VEGETABLE PAIN KILLER.

THE UNIVERSAL REMEDY FOR INTERNAL AND EXTERNAL COMPLAINTS!

At this period there are but few of the human race unacquainted with the merits of the Pain Killer; but while some extol it as a liniment, they know but little of its power in easing pain when taken internally, while others use it internally with great success, but are equally ignorant of its healing virtues when applied externally. We therefore wish to say to all that it is equally successful whether used internally or externally, and it stands alone, unrivalled by all the great catalogue of Family Medicines, and its sale is universal and immense. The demand for it from India and other foreign countries is equal to the demand at home, and it has become known in these far off places by its merits.

STEAM POWER, NOS. 623 AND 631 FRONT ST.

HAS CONSTANTLY ON HAND GROUND AND ROASTED COFFEE, GREEN COFFEE of the best qualities. CREAM OF TARTAR and SPICES of all sorts.

The undersigned, who has always enjoyed public confidence for the excellent quality of his Coffee, neglects nothing to justify the good name acquired by his productions, the sale of which daily increases. The acknowledged superiority of his merchandise, which commands here, and in the markets of the interior, a relatively higher price, excites the cupidity of some manufacturers, and every day he sees increasing the number of those who, by counterfeit or imitation of his mark, seek to deceive the public, palming upon them their inferior productions for the genuine G. VENARD CHARTRES COFFEE. This fraud can deceive nobody after a trial, but only adds to the favorable opinion of the consumers, the very flattering though unwilling testimony of the counterfeiters. Nevertheless, buyers should be forewarned, and be on their guard against this practice.

HOSTETTER'S

CELEBRATED STOMACH BITTERS!

A Pure and Powerful Tonic,

Corrective and Alterative, of wonderful efficacy in Diseases of the STOMACH, LIVER AND BOWELS.

PROTECTIVE PROPERTIES.

Prevents Fever and Ague and Bilious Remittent Fevers; Fortifies the System against Miasma and the evil effects of unwholesome water; Invigorates the organs of digestion and the bowels.

Steadies the Nerves and tends to Prolong Life.

REMEDIAL PROPERTIES.

Cures Dyspepsia, Liver Complaint, Sick and Nervous Headache, General Debility, Nervousness, Depression of Spirits, Constipation, Colic, Intermittent Fevers, Sea Sickness, Cramps and Spasms, and all complaints of either sex arising from Bodily Weakness, whether inherent in the system or PRODUCED BY SPECIAL CAUSES.

NOTHING THAT IS NOT WHOLESOME, GENIAL, and restorative in its nature, enters into the composition of HOSTETTER'S STOMACH BITTERS. This popular preparation contains no mineral of any kind; no deadly botanical element; no fiery excitant; but is a combination of the extracts of rare balsamic herbs and plants, with the purest and mildest of all diffusive stimulants.

The weak stomach is rapidly invigorated, and the appetite restored by this Tonic, and hence it works wonders in cases of Dyspepsia, and in less confirmed forms of Indigestion. Acting as a gentle and painless aperient, as well as upon the liver, it also invariably relieves the Constipation superinduced by irregular action of the digestive and secretive organs.

Persons of feeble habit, liable to Nervous Attacks, Lowness of Spirits, and Fits of Languor, find prompt and permanent relief from the Bitters. The testimony on this point is conclusive, and from both sexes.

As a Genuine Tonic, HOSTETTER'S BITTERS produces effects which must be experienced or witnessed before they can be fully appreciated. In cases of Constitutional Weakness, Premature Decay, and Debility and Decrepitude arising from old age, it exercises the electric influence. In the convalescent stages of all diseases it operates as a delightful invigorant. When the powers of nature are relaxed, it operates to re-enforce and re-establish them.

Last, but not least, it is the only safe stimulant, being manufactured from sound and innocuous materials, and entirely free from the acrid elements present more or less in all the ordinary tonics and stomachics of the day.

The idea of [illegible] from Oregon to California to attend a Commercial School is absurd.

"It is my opinion that pupils [illegible] M. LAUDEN and DePRANCE receive a [illegible] attention than those of any other Commercial College on the [illegible], and this I say without wishing to detract from the [illegible] of schools I have visited in San Francisco."

Political Matters.

The fact has leaked out that Jerry Black wrote Johnson's Hancock message. Aside from the knowledge of this, the Chronicle prints two sentences by way of proof, the first taken from Black's eulogy on Justice Daniel in 1860, as follows:

"Of such a character it is fit that the dignity should be vindicated and the value made known. Let not the just man go to his grave unhonored, for these are not the times when we can lose the benefit of a great example."

Second, from the closing part of the message as follows:

"Of such an act as his, at such a time, it is but fit that the dignity should be vindicated and the virtue proclaimed, so that its value as an example may not be lost to the nation."

The following is the resolution respecting Gen. Grant, adopted by the New Hampshire Republicans at their late convention: "Resolved, That in behalf of the loyal people of New Hampshire, we do hereby proclaim, as our and their first choice for the next President of the United States, General Ulysses S. Grant, who led our armies to victory, and our country to peace. Reticent and sagacious in council; self possessed and daring in battle, modest and magnanimous in victory, he is first in the confidence and first in the hearts of his countrymen."

We wish, says the St. Louis Democrat, that [illegible] of the Irishmen who march to the polls on [illegible] days, and vote the Democratic ticket, their fear being that if they do not the "nigger" will somehow get the upper hand at the South, could read the remarks about Fenianism which we find in the rebel papers of that section. Among them all, we do not know of one that has uttered a word of sympathy with the effort for Irish freedom, but, either with sneers or with open denunciation, most of them express their undisguised hostility to that effort and its object. Thus the Richmond Enquirer, after saying that it was contended that John Mitchell would not lend himself to such a cause, adds, "the fact is, with us at the South, the organization of Fenian circles in our midst is a festering sore in the body politic." The fact is, that there is a close sympathy between the [illegible] of England and the aristocracy at the South. Both profess to be very fond of liberty, but both deny it to all who stand in any need of it. Both have become infamous by tyranny and [illegible] to an oppressed people; both excuse the tyranny by appeals to the meanest prejudices of [illegible]. The Englishman says, in reply to all appeals for justice to Ireland, "The Irish are not fit to [illegible]; they are good for nothing but to be our servants; their insurrection must be stamped out. And the Southern rebel says, "The [illegible] is not fit to vote; the white race [illegible] to rule this continent."

"[illegible] of [illegible] ary color," says Hosea Biglow. The spirit that prompts the Englishman to [illegible] Irishman beneath his heel is exactly that which tramples the black man into the dust. The infamous [illegible] in both cases is the same: "We belong to a superior race," says the [illegible] and the rebel. "The Celt never had [illegible] for freedom," says the Briton. "The [illegible] is fit for nothing but slavery," says the rebel. Will some one please tell us, then, why [illegible] Irishmen in this country vote with the [illegible] and the rebel to sustain this accursed doctrine that "all men are not created equal?"

[illegible] the Washington correspondent of the New York Times writes: I certainly [illegible] when, on Stanton's removal from [illegible] heard that the President had [illegible] placing him [illegible] he sent word [illegible] begging him to abandon the purpose [illegible] was "an awful Radical— [illegible]." Now there is [illegible] that meanwhile Gen. Meade has always [illegible]. In conversation with the writer, [illegible] expressed himself as very strongly in [illegible] the Presidency. Not but that [illegible] a civilian for the office; but if, as [illegible] the chair is to be filled by a soldier, [illegible] Grant the fittest person—the [illegible] of them all. The General [illegible] strongly for Grant.

[illegible] between General Sherman [illegible] at the close of the late [illegible] ("Are we a Nation?") in St. Louis, [illegible] with marked [illegible] in the Southern Democratic [illegible] is now welcomed at [illegible] in [illegible] "Hail Columbia" [illegible] Springfield Republican observes that [illegible] was there it was the other way; [illegible] "Hail Columbia."

[illegible] that the Hon. [illegible] Senator elect from the strongest [illegible] district in that city, John Hardy, [illegible] of the XXth Ward, John Y. Savage, [illegible] and Robert B. Roosevelt, Esq., [illegible] for General Grant as next [illegible] of the United States, and that they will [illegible]. At this present writing, [illegible] in our city, says the New [illegible] (Chase organ), look very strong, [illegible] in his behalf is very active and [illegible].

[illegible] Journal asks this pertinent question: [illegible] of Washing[illegible], is not he who [illegible] the [illegible] than Washington? That is the [illegible] which President Johnson would have [illegible] of his [illegible] sage, if [illegible] had not restrained him. "So he generally [illegible]. [illegible] put in words, [illegible] tore every button from every waistcoat [illegible]."

[illegible] dispatch to the Springfield Republican [illegible]: Nearly every member of the [illegible] is in favor of Grant's election. These are [illegible] for believing that Seward is a Grant [illegible]. General Randall does not [illegible] of the fact that he is for Grant. The [illegible] Johnson man in the Cabinet is [illegible]. He sticks closely to the President, and is one of the worst negro-haters in the country.

[illegible] says that if the Democracy had "any serious intention of taking [illegible] Grant as its Presidential candidate," [illegible] the publication of his "private" letter to [illegible] Johnson, "it may as well put on mourning for a lost hope."

[illegible] of the Cincinnati Enquirer [illegible] any person who has a capital C in his [illegible] be President of the United States. TO THE UNFORTUNATE.

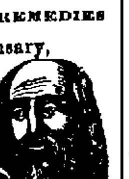
NEW REMEDIES, NEW REMEDIES

Dr. Gibbon's Dispensary,



616 KEARNEY STREET, NEAR COMMERCIAL, San Francisco. Established in 1854, for the treatment of Sexual and Seminal Diseases, such as Gonorrhea, Gleet, Stricture, Syphilis in all its forms, Seminal Weakness, Impotency, etc. Skin Diseases (of years standing) and Ulcerated Legs successfully treated.

Horrible Diseases.

How many thousands of persons, both male and female, are there who are suffering out a miserable existence from the effects of secret indulgences, or from virus absorbed into the system! Look at their pallid, emaciated and disfigured faces and their broken-down constitutions, disqualifying them for the happiness of marriage or the enjoyment of life. In this horrid situation thousands suffer until death closes the scene. Let parents, guardians, friends, attend to those who are suffering with any of these horrible life-destroying maladies—see that they are cured for and cured before it be too late. Send them immediately to Doctor Gibbon, a physician who has made private disease his especial study for years, and who is certain to cure the most inveterate cases without mercury or any injurious drugs. It is important to those who are afflicted, or to those who are interested in the welfare of their friends, to be careful of the many pretended doctors who infest all cities, publishing their skill in curing all diseases in a few days, imposing upon the public by using the names of eminent physicians from Europe and other places. Be therefore careful and make strict inquiry, or you may fall into the hands of those charlatans.

Seminal Weakness.

Seminal Emissions, the consequence of self-abuse. This solitary vice, or depraved sexual indulgence, is practised by the youth of both sexes to an almost unlimited extent, producing, with unerring certainty, the following train of morbid symptoms, unless combatted by scientific medical measures, viz: Sallow countenance, dark spots under the eyes, pain in the head, ringing in the ears, noise like the rustling of leaves and rattling of chariots, uneasiness about the loins, weakness of the limbs, confused vision, blunted intellect, loss of confidence, diffidence in approaching strangers, a dislike to form new acquaintances, a disposition to shun society, loss of memory, hectic flushes, pimples and various eruptions about the face, furred tongue, fetid breath, coughs, consumption, night sweats, monomania and frequent insanity. If relief be not obtained, should apply immediately, either in person or by letter, and have a cure effected by his new and scientific mode of treating this disease, which never fails of effecting a quick and radical cure. Dr. G. will give One Hundred Dollars to any person who will prove satisfactorily to him that he was cured of this complaint by either of the San Francisco quacks.

MARRIED MEN,

Or those who contemplate marriage, who are suffering under any of these fearful maladies, should not forget the sacred responsibility resting upon them nor delay to obtain immediate relief.

TO THE LADIES.

The various complicated and distressing diseases incident to females, treated with eminent success. Such as Suppressions, Irregularities, Whites, Falling of the Womb, Tumors, all Urinary Diseases, Nervous Debility, Painful or Difficult Menstruation, Barrenness, etc., will be speedily cured, without poisonous drugs, injuries or unpalatable medicines of any kind. Have no delicacy in calling, no difference what your troubles may be. The afflicted are cordially invited to call and satisfy themselves.

Persons calling at Dr. Gibbon's office or sending for packages of medicines, may rely upon his assurances of confidential secrecy with implicit faith, and expect no more than to be charged with a fair, and mutually satisfactory remuneration for services rendered, considering the circumstances and difficulties of cases, rather than a too prevalent and selfish practice of extortion among quacks and pretenders.

DOCTOR GIBBON is responsible, and will give to each patient a written instrument, binding himself to effect a radical and permanent cure, or make no charge.

CURED AT HOME.

Persons at a distance may be CURED AT HOME, by addressing a letter to Dr. Gibbon, stating case, symptoms, length of time the disease has continued, and have medicines promptly forwarded, free from damage and curiosity, to any part of the country, with full and plain directions for use, for Ten Dollars, sent in registered letter or through Wells, Fargo & Co.

Address DR. J. F. GIBBON, 616 Kearney street, corner Commercial, San Francisco. Post Office Box 252.

REMEMBER TO PUT BOX 252 ON THE LETTER.

Consultations FREE.

Correspondents will please inform DR. GIBBON that they read his advertisement in the Daily Oregonian

HIRAM SMITH'S

Ophthalmic Panacea!

IN BRINGING THE ABOVE NAMED NEW REMEDY to the notice of the Public, the Proprietor begs to state a few facts in relation to it, as follows:

It originated in Prussia, where the science of Medicine is so thoroughly taught and practised, but owing to the poverty of its discoverer its wonderful properties were not known beyond the limited circle of his acquaintance, in which, however, it proved itself absolutely infallible in eradicating disease from the eyes.

He immigrated to this country, bringing his discovery with him, but seems to have been indifferent to the propriety of giving it general and wide-spread circulation, and, as previously in his native country, seemed only desirous of using it among his friends and neighbors.

The present proprietor was one of those neighbors, and for many years was a witness to its wonderful efficacy, and, after ineffectual efforts to persuade the Inventor to more widely disseminate the knowledge of its virtues, finally became himself the possessor of the secret of its preparation.

And now, while he does not deny that he hopes and expects to make money by its sale, he must yet lay claim to a desire to benefit his fellows by presenting to them a remedy which does and will cure where medical science and all experience have failed.

He wishes it to be understood that it will cure all diseases of the eye, whether of recent or long standing; but its greatest power is exhibited when it is applied to old Chronic Cases of long standing, which have resisted every other attempt to cure them, and which have been given up as hopeless and past being cured or relieved.

He asks those afflicted in this way to give it a trial, and so confident is he of its success that he instructs all his agents TO REFUND THE MONEY IF IT FAILS TO CURE.

It has, within the past year, cured cases of GRANULATED LIDS, INFLAMMATION, &c., of FIVE, SIX, NINE, FIFTEEN and SEVENTEEN YEARS STANDING, evidence of which fact is furnished in the testimony of the following persons, living at and in the neighborhood of Harrisburg, Linn county:

ALEXANDER L. WALKER was cured of inflamed eyes, of nine years standing. Had been treated by eminent physicians during all that time without effect.

Mrs. MONTGOMERY, of Harrisburg, had inflamed eyes for over two years. For one year they were so bad that she could not work. Was finally completely cured by the Ophthalmic Panacea.

E. B. MOORE, of the firm of Moore, Garst & Baber, of Harrisburg, had granulated lids for six years.

NATHANIEL BELL, of Clackamas county, had inflamed eyes—a bad case—for over fifteen years.

ROBERT RAMPEY and W. D. PORTER, of Harrisburg; JOHN M. HOLLOWAY, of Linn County; G. R. WARD, of Lane County, were all afflicted, more or less severely, with diseased eyes, and were cured by the Ophthalmic Panacea.

All the above named persons have given lengthy testimonials to the facts as above stated, which may be seen at the proprietor's office in Harrisburg.

DR. J. C. YOUNG,

Medical and Surgical INSTITUTE.

, CONSULTATION, IN ALL CASES, FREE.

, CURES GUARANTEED, OR NO PAY REQUIRED.

, IN ALL CASES WHERE CONFIDENCE IS REQUIRED THE UTMOST SECRECY MAINTAINED.

The above rules, established by Dr. J. C. Young in 1850, and which have done so much to secure the reputation of this Institute, are still adhered to, affording those in need of medical aid, the certainty of cure and the utmost confidence.

There is nothing of so great importance to the sick as to know where to find a physician whose skill and humanity give assurance of proper and delicate treatment. The Doctor would respectfully call the attention of those of both sexes who are suffering or in trouble to the invariable success that has marked the career of the Institute in the seventeen years of its existence.

It is unnecessary in this connection to enumerate all the complaints treated at the Institute, but the Doctor feels it his duty to call especial attention to that terrible scourge,

SEMINAL WEAKNESS,

That is sapping with its insidiousness the very life of its victims; in the treatment and cure of which the Institute has earned so enviable a reputation.

READ! READ!

I am aware that by dwelling upon so uninviting a subject as the decay of manly vigor through the loss of the vital principle of life, the ignorant may asperse my motives; but the desire to point out to those who suffer, languish and decay, the true cause of their affliction, is too great an incentive to be forced into abeyance. How extended the terrible disease of Seminal Weakness is, no one but the practical specialist who devotes his time to its treatment can tell; but its presence can be detected by the most inexperienced by noting the following symptoms: Weakness of the back and limbs; languishing feelings, loss of muscular power; nervousness; irritability; cold feet or hands, accompanied by hot head; symptoms of consumption; short breath; flushings of the face; aversion to society; confusion of the mind; loss of memory; nightly emissions; colorless; slight discharges upon the least excitement; trembling; palpitation of the heart; irregular appetite; variable temper, etc.

YOUNG MAN, if you experience any of the various symptoms enumerated above, pause to consider. The present is the golden moment in which you may regain health and happiness. You may feel strong now, but if you have ever practiced the vice of self-abuse even in the SLIGHTEST DEGREE, you have the seeds of weakness in your system, and their undermining influence will, sooner or later, dash the fair edifice of your strength to the ground, leaving you a helpless, abject being. It is not a disease that declares itself at once. Therein lies its greatest danger; for while the patient is being treated for some affection of the Heart, Lungs, Brain, or Digestive functions, he sinks into a general debility that soon adds him to the list of the victims of the terrible disorder, Seminal Weakness.

See in the bent form and languishing steps, the poor victim of the fascinating vice! Mark the course of the destructive complaint in the hollow cheek and dull eye!

Drowsiness is one of the premonitory symptoms. At first it is easily shaken off, but it grows eventually into a great disinclination to pursue his regular business. The mind becomes apprehensive, and restless nights, [illegible] days of despair.

It is the nature of the complaint to [illegible] sudden changes that leave the poor victim but little hope of recovery. In a single instant it may wither your fond hopes and blast your honest aspirations.

Marriage is sought by a natural impulse as a hope of relief. This is an error of the first magnitude, for the system, unprepared for the exigencies of the [illegible], suddenly fails, and he finds himself in a deplorable condition, from which there is but the slightest hope of recovery. Or if the marriage should result in offspring, they are puny, distorted, decrepid, and degenerate. This is applicable to both sexes, whether married or single, and to all times of life.

Do not delay if you feel any of the symptoms of the terrible complaint, or if your acts have been such as to lead to them, but by instant application secure to yourself the only hope of health and happiness. The Doctor uses no mercury or other deleterious drugs. Cures, when taken in time, always guaranteed, and full and proper vigor restored.

The afflicted are assured of every confidence.

PERSONS AFFLICTED WITH VENEREAL.

During the seventeen years since the establishment of the Institute, the number of cases of Venereal that have been treated, show a record unsurpassed by any hospital in the world, and the success that has invariably marked the course of treatment,

Without Mercury or other Deleterious Drugs,

Shows conclusively the use of them to be not only uncalled for, but actually dangerous, for it is a thoroughly established medical principle that those poisonous drugs, by entering the blood, ruin the constitution and destroy life.

The Doctor effects a cure in recent cases, in a few days, and finds no difficulty in curing those of long duration, without submitting the patient to such treatment as will draw upon him the slightest suspicion, or oblige him to neglect his business, whether in-doors or without. The diet need not be changed. Cures always guaranteed, or no pay required.

IMPORTANT TO FEMALES.

When a female is in trouble or afflicted with disease, and requires medical or surgical assistance, the inquiry should be, "Where is there a physician competent to administer relief, and whose respectable standing in society will recommend him to the confidence of the community?" The Doctor, understanding how imperatively necessary these requirements are, feels called upon to interpose, and by calling the attention of the afflicted to the fact that he has been a Professor of Obstetrics and Female Diseases for twenty years, and is fully qualified to administer in all cases, both medically and surgically, not in a superficial manner, but in as thorough a manner as years of study and practice —both in hospitals and private families—can make, to save them from the hands of the unqualified, unscrupulous or designing. Therefore, families can rely upon him as upon a father. All in affliction can find in him one who can feel and sympathize with and befriend them in trouble—one in whose secrecy the utmost confidence can be placed— consultation by letter or otherwise, free. Cures guaranteed in all weakness and trouble incidental to the sex. Private apartments are provided, when desired, where can be had all the advantages of unremitted attention of the Doctor, and the most skillful and and faithful nurses.

TO CORRESPONDENTS.—Persons, either male or female, residing in the interior, are often deterred from consulting the Doctor because they cannot spare the time, nor incur the expense of a visit to the city. To such he would say that a plain statement of the symptoms and information bearing upon the complaint, will enable him to prescribe for them so that they can be cured at home. None need have any false delicacy about writing, no matter what the nature of their complaint, as the communication will be seen by no one except the Doctor, and will be treated with the utmost confidence and either be returned or destroyed.

Consultation Free.

Ayer's SARSAPARILLA,

THE WORLD'S GREAT REMEDY FOR

Scrofula and Scrofulous Diseases.

From Emery Edes, a well-known merchant of Oxford, Maine.

"I have sold large quantities of your SARSAPARILLA, but never yet one bottle which failed of the desired effect and full satisfaction to those who took it. As fast as our people try it, they agree there has been no medicine like it before in our community."

Eruptions, Pimples, Blotches, Pustules, Ulcers, Sores, and all Diseases of the Skin.

From Rev. Robt. Stratton, Bristol, England.

"I only do my duty to you and the public, when I add my testimony to that you publish of the medicinal virtues of your SARSAPARILLA. My daughter, aged ten, had an afflicting humor in her ears, eyes, and hair for years, which we were unable to cure until we tried your SARSAPARILLA. She has been well for some months."

From Mrs. Jane E. Rice, a well-known and much-esteemed lady of Dennisville, Cape May Co., N. J.

"My daughter has suffered for a year past with a scrofulous eruption, which was very troublesome. Nothing afforded any relief until we tried your SARSAPARILLA, which soon completely cured her."

From Charles P. Gage, Esq., of the widely-known Gage, Murray & Co., manufacturers of enamelled papers in Nashua, N. H.

"I had for several years a very troublesome humor in my face, which grew constantly worse until it disfigured my features and became an intolerable affliction. I tried almost every thing a man could of both advice and medicine, but without any relief whatever, until I took your SARSAPARILLA. It immediately made my face worse, as you told me it might for a time; but in a few weeks the new skin began to form under the blotches, and continued until my face is as smooth as any body's, and I am without any symptoms of the disease that I know of. I enjoy perfect health, and without a doubt owe it to your SARSAPARILLA."
